

Certification of Participation

The Fundamentals of National Security provides those who are tasked to work with Sweden's crisis preparedness and total defence with an increased understanding of the security and defence of a nation state, including its citizens, economy, institutions, and critical societal functions.

Upon successful completion of the course, the participants are able to describe concretely and theoretically their individual and organisational contributions to maintaining and strengthening Sweden's national security.

Alexander Lindholm.....
Signature

11/12/2024.....
Date

Alexander Lindholm.....
Name

